Gentlemen:-

In reply to your favor of the 20th inst., to our Mr. Einstein, we beg to inform you that Geo. Faber mentioned in your letter is one of our cash boys who desired to get a few specimens of these coins and asked you for a catalogue.

Upon being shown your communication, he nearly fainted as the poor fellow had of course no idea you would send him a lot of coins representing more than he would earn in a year, and we have therefore instructed Wells Fargo & Co. to return the package to you.

Yours truly,

Louis Einstein & Co.,
